Update: Llay, Wales

We look forward to the challenges of ministering in Wales in 2012. We are off and running with our teen ministry and other outreach activities. We have now shifted to weekly Fantastic Fridays (they had been every other week as we ramped up). We now have just enough daylight in the evenings to start having outdoor activities. I am convinced that to engage the young people in Llay we will need to take the church to them – at least for some activities. Our advertising and inviting have not drawn the numbers we have hoped for. We will alternate activities between sports outreach at a central football pitch and the church. We want to reach them but also want them to get used to coming to the church. The devotions in our Fantastic Fridays have brought out some great questions from the young people; everything from questions about what is the unpardonable sin to who can be saved. One of the best discussions was after using the Evange-Cube to share the gospel during our half-term school break Fun Night. Three young people who

Welsh Growing In the Lord

We are thankful for Clive and Helen who received the Lord last year. They followed the Lord in believer's baptism in February. They are continuing to grow through our discipleship classes and we have been blessed by their enthusiasm and insightful questions. Clive has shared that he is feeling led by the Lord to preach the Gospel – amen! He is currently looking at starting to take some classes from Baptist Bible College Great Britain. In the mean time, I will be bringing him to fellowship meetings and other opportunities to help him learn and grow in his faith. Please pray for him for direction from the Lord in terms of his service for Him. The road ahead is challenging but we serve a great God.

Thank you for your prayers for Ben and Timmy. They are both back in the States and settled in. Timmy just found a job which will help toward living expenses and nursing school starting in the fall. Ben is doing well as he resumes his studies. Please continue to pray for them!

do not come regularly came up afterward and asked several great questions about sin, heaven and hell – we are praying that they will come back so we can follow up with them.

In February, Cindy, Mary and I volunteered for a "Trash Pick" in the local park. Through this I was able to meet several residents of our village as well as one local and one county council member. It was not long after this that our church received a county grant toward the installation of a sound system in our church – a coincidence? We will do what it takes to get known to share the Gospel!

Mary and I have just started our second semester of Welsh and are coming along with it. While we are enjoying learning the language we enjoy sharing Christ even more. I had an opportunity to clearly share the Gospel with our teacher and one of the students after class in January. Please pray for them!

We thank you for your sacrificial giving that we might take the Gospel to the people of Wales. I can say that those that have been saved are thankful that you have sent us! May the Lord bless you as you serve Him!
